

Taylor Langford

Principal, Director of Property Management

Mr. Langford serves as a Principal and Director of Property Management at KPG Commercial, where he oversees all property management operations across the firm's commercial portfolio.

Since joining KPG Commercial in 2013, he has played a role in the growth and day-to-day performance of the company's assets, with hands-on experience spanning property management, leasing, and construction management.

In his role, Mr. Langford works closely with the KPG property management team, ownership groups, contractors, and vendors to ensure the firm's properties are well maintained, operationally efficient, and positioned for long-term value. He also collaborates with tenants to foster strong relationships, balancing ownership objectives with tenant needs.
